About the Book

Big Den Dennis Hartley Rugby League Footballer is a comprehensive biography of one of the greatest players to ever grace the field. From his humble beginnings to his record-breaking career, this book tells the full story of a true sporting legend.

Dennis Hartley was born in 1932 in the small town of Castleford, Yorkshire. He began playing rugby league at a young age and quickly showed a natural talent for the game. He made his debut for Castleford in 1949 and went on to play for Great Britain and Lancashire.

Hartley was a powerful and skilful forward who was known for his aggressive style of play. He was a key member of the Great Britain team that won the Rugby League World Cup in 1954 and 1960. He also played in the famous 1955 Ashes series, which saw Great Britain defeat Australia 3-1.

Hartley retired from playing in 1967 and was inducted into the Rugby League Hall of Fame in 1988. He died in 2018 at the age of 85.

Big Den Dennis Hartley Rugby League Footballer is a fitting tribute to a true sporting legend. This book is a must-read for any fan of rugby league or anyone who appreciates a great story about a great man.
