The Super Awful Superheroes of Classroom 13 is a hilarious and heartwarming children's book about a group of misfit students who discover their own unique superpowers.

When Mrs. Piddlesworth's class of third graders is assigned a superhero project, the students are less than enthusiastic. But when a mysterious meteorite crashes into the school, everything changes. Suddenly, the students start to develop strange and wonderful powers.

There's Flubber, who can stretch and bounce like a rubber band. And Zap, who can generate electricity from his fingertips. And Stink, who can... well, let's just say he has a very powerful sense of smell.

At first, the students are afraid of their new powers. But with the help of their teacher, they learn to embrace their differences and use their powers for good.

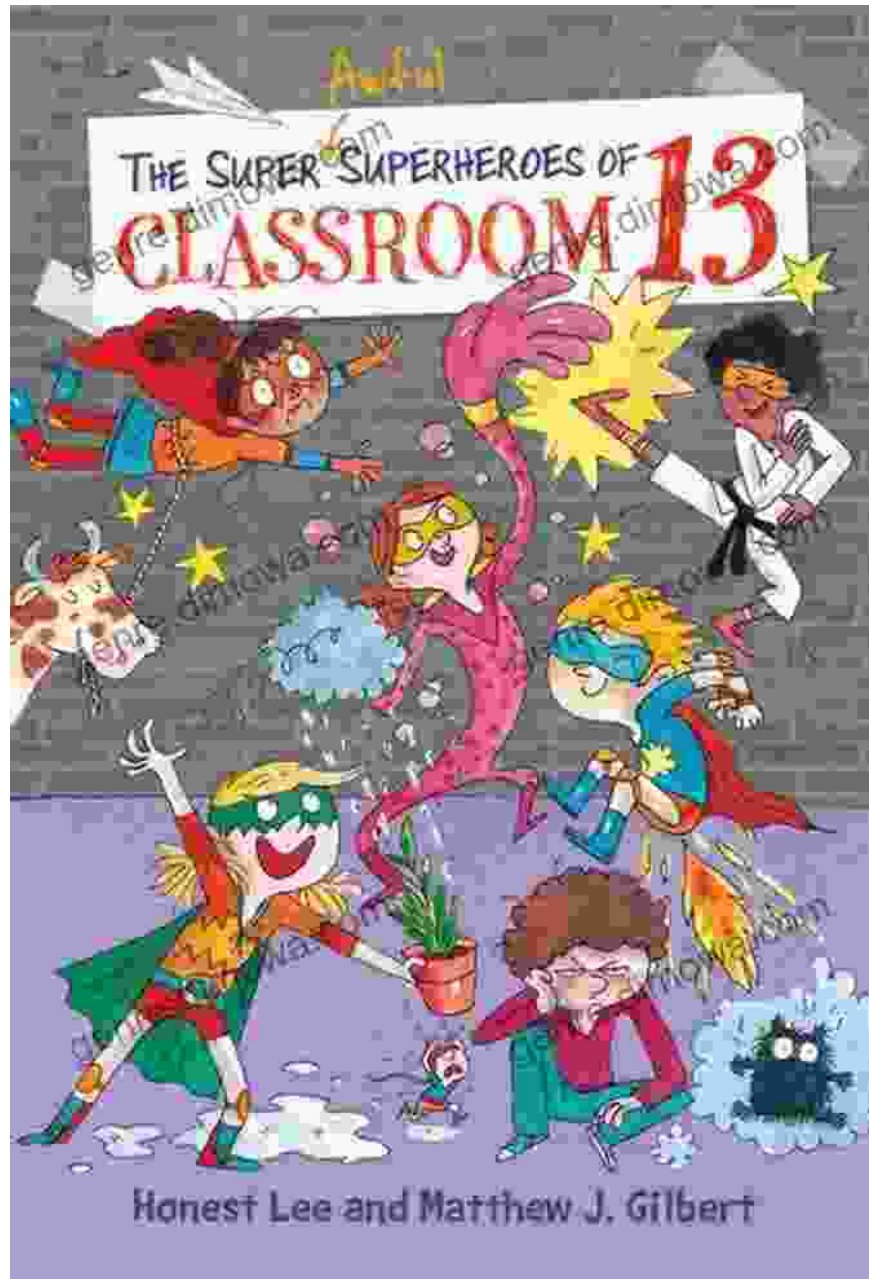

The Super Awful Superheroes of Classroom 13 is a fun and inspiring story about the power of friendship and acceptance. It's a perfect book for any child who has ever felt like they didn't belong.

Meet the Characters

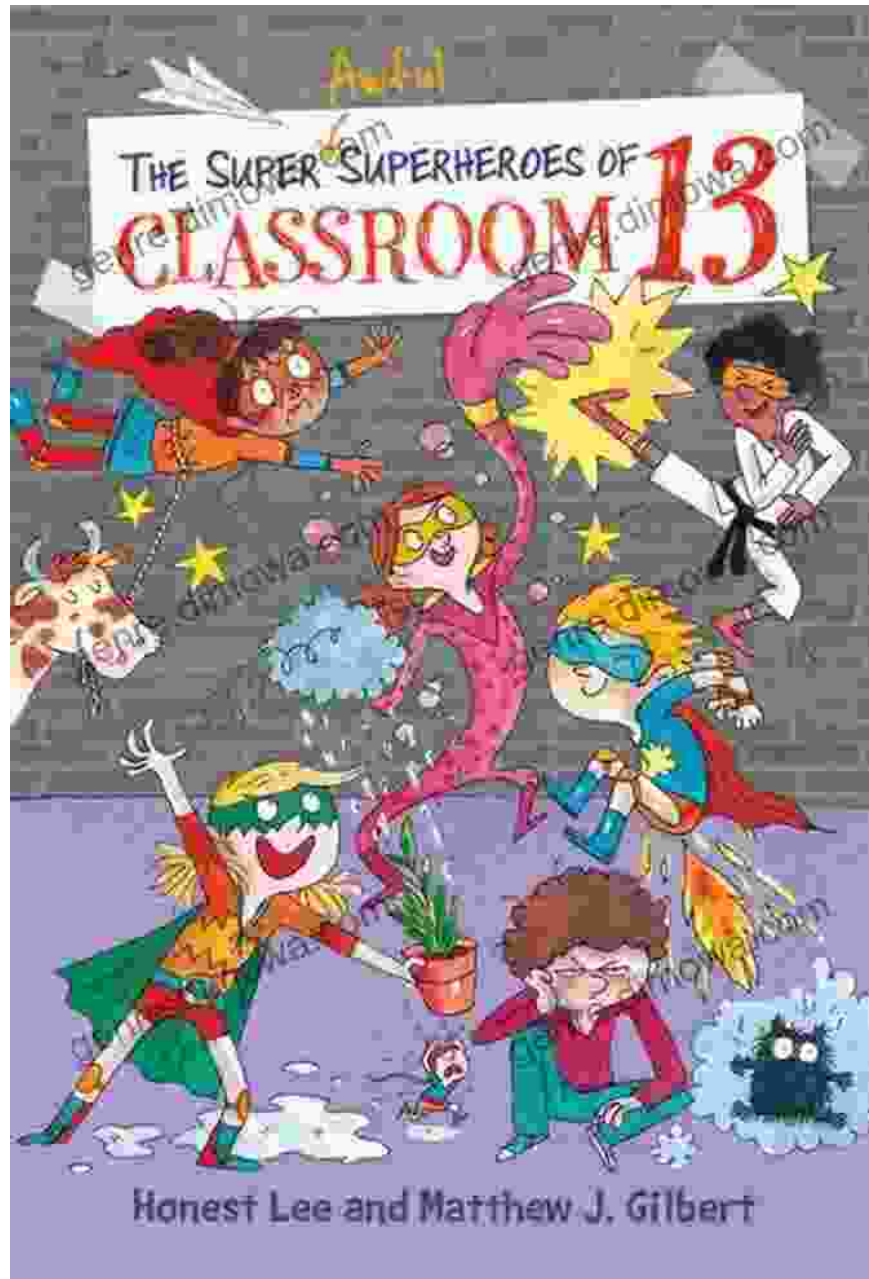

Flubber: Flubber is a kind and gentle giant who can stretch and bounce like a rubber band. He loves to make people laugh, and he's always there to help his friends.

Zap: Zap is a shy and introverted boy who can generate electricity from his fingertips. He's afraid of his powers at first, but he learns to use them for good.

Stink: Stink is a funny and outgoing boy who has a very powerful sense of smell. He loves to eat, and he's always getting into trouble.

Together, Flubber, Zap, and Stink form an unlikely team of superheroes. They learn to use their powers for good, and they help each other to overcome their fears and insecurities.

The Super Awful Superheroes of Classroom 13 is a perfect book for any child who has ever felt like they didn't belong. It's a funny, heartwarming, and inspiring story about the power of friendship and acceptance.
