RICH HERRIN A Head Coach

Ahead Of His Time

MATT WYNN

About the Book

Rich Herrin: Head Coach Ahead of His Time is a must-read for any fan of football, coaching, or leadership. The book tells the story of Herrin's life and career, from his humble beginnings to his success as a college head coach.

Herrin was born in a small town in Illinois in 1935. He grew up playing football and dreamed of one day becoming a coach. After graduating from college, Herrin began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of Illinois. He quickly rose through the ranks, becoming a head coach at the age of 32.

Herrin's teams were known for their innovative offense and their winning ways. He led his teams to several conference championships and bowl games. Herrin was also a pioneer in the use of technology in football. He was one of the first coaches to use videotape to study opponents and develop game plans.

Herrin retired from coaching in 1995. He has since been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and the Illinois Sports Hall of Fame. He is considered one of the greatest college football coaches of all time.
